HARDING SUGGESTS SENIORITY BE KEPT

President Submits Three Proposals For Settlement of Rail Strike To Conference

(By Associated Press)
New York, Aug. 1.—President Harding's proposals for settlement of the nation-wide rail strike, were made public today in connection with the meeting of 148 road heads to consider settlement. They numbered three.

The first says the roads and men should abide by the decision of the Labor Board.

The second provides all law suits brought by either side in connection with the strike be withdrawn and disputes arising from the walkout be left with the Labor Board for settlement.

The third proposal and the one calculated to provoke the most discussion suggests strikers be taken back on basis of seniority which they enjoyed before they walked out.

Secretary Hoover presented the proposals to the meeting which adjourned until later in the day. It was understood after the rail road executives had prepared notes, they concluded it would be unfair to their loyal employees to accept President Harding's third proposal. One man is quoted as saying the roads "would never in the world" accept the seniority proposal.

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 1.—It was indicated at the Capitol today that Governor Morrow has adopted a waiting attitude in regard to sending troops to Corbin, the largest railroad shop center in Eastern Kentucky, where the strike is on and where the Kentucky Manufacturers Association asked the governor to send troops. The governor has observers there but quiet but there is no doubt of its gravity. The governor is quoted as saying he could not send troops unless the county officials and the Louisville & Nashville railroad company requested them.

Danville Caddies Strike

Danville, Ky., Aug. 1.—Twenty-seven caddies walked out on a strike at the Danville Country Club today. A paper signed by all members of the Caddy Union demanded an increase of 5 cents on each round covered over the course and an increase of 5 cents on all balls found. The caddy leaders say there will be no compromise and their terms must be fully met before they will return to work. "Scabs" who toted the bags for the players this afternoon were threatened with a "whippin'" by the union caddies if they continued to volunteer their services on the old wage scale.

Los Angeles, July 31.—Marilyn Miller, famous stage star, lost his Marilyn when everybody rushed forward to kiss the bride. From then on it was impossible to tell who was doing the honors but when it was all over, the Rev. Dodd, who performed the ceremony, stepped forward for his.

BAPTISTS HOLD BIG MEETING AT SAND GAP

(By Associated Press)

Clover Bottom, Ky., July 31.—A great revival at the Sand Gap Baptist church which includes the Clover Bottom neighborhood, is being conducted by Rev. William Anderson, of McKee, and Rev. Lewis Van Winkle, of Big Hill. It has been in progress for the past week and has proved to be one of the most successful meetings held in this vicinity for years. Rev. Anderson has been preaching for some 35 or 40 years. Rev. Van Winkle is a young preacher, of only three or four years, but is fast coming into prominence as a minister of the Gospel. Rev. Anderson is what might be termed a doctrinal man, while Rev. Van Winkle is fine on exhortation, so the two together seem to make a fine team. The whole community has become very much interested and the church put in better shape every way. There have been added to the church body 16 by baptism and 10 by restoration or letter, making a grand total of 26. One thing which has been very noticeable throughout the meeting is the extra quiet and civil conduct which has been accorded to church people and on which the preaching brethren passed very high compliments and which every good citizen should, and does feel proud of his neighborhood, when he can speak thus for his church and people of his community. Yet when we come to think about those glorious blessings our minds automatically revert back to a time not so long ago when it was not considered safe for a congregation of people to undertake to assemble themselves together any where for any purpose on account of the disorder that prevailed all over our land and county. But the time has now come that the people are decided that law enforcement must prevail and it does seem that the lawless element is more willing to abide by the law than was believed to be possible a year or 18 months ago. But come to think, there is always a lull just after a storm. And the storm in Jackson county for the last two or three years has been the liquor business. Owing to the efficient officers who now have hold of the reins of government in Jackson county and the trend of the minds of the people, this liquor business is a thing of the EARL CURTIS WORKS FOR POOL IN W. VA.

(By Associated Press)

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 1.—A strong drive is being staged in Cabell county this week by the local chairman of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, under the direction of Earl L. Curtis, of Richmond, Ky. Following a meeting at Barboursville last Saturday, at which J. W. Gaines, banker of Lawrenceburg, Ky., was the principal speaker, the local leaders are holding a series of meetings to sign up the two districts tributary to Barboursville 100 per cent for the co-operative association.

Mr. Curtis, who has charge of the work in this territory, has created practically a complete organization to carry on the campaign, since he entered this work here six weeks ago. More than 60 per cent of the tobacco in this territory has been pledged to the association as a result of his efforts, and a still larger sign-up is expected.

The meeting Saturday attracted more persons to Barboursville than had been gathered in that place for ten years, according to the residents. The president of the local bank, P. A. Valandigham, resided at the meeting and gave the endorsement of his bank to the movement. Following the addresses of the afternoon, many members were added to the association.

Next week Mr. Curtis will move to new territory, to repeat his organization efforts there.

past or nearly so, at any rate, while the men who were unthoughtful enough to indulge in this awful traffic have come to see that it is only folly to try to keep it up any longer and things of this nature are fast disappearing and our people are beginning to see the near future when this kind of thing will be of the past and we are looking for a great revolution in many respects.

WOMAN OFFICER AND WOMAN PRISONER

Attract Interest Here As Later Is Taken To Hospital—On Way To Irvine

A woman officer wearing a big badge and with a pair of handcuffs and a woman prisoner created considerable interest and excitement as a southbound train pulled into the depot late Monday and they alighted. The officer was Mrs. Clara Wilcox, woman deputy sheriff of Estill county, and her prisoner was Mrs. Marcellus Hood, who is charged with bigamy. They were on their way to Irvine from Jackson, Tenn., where the arrest was made, but Mrs. Hood was so ill that Mrs. Wilcox, former nurse and social service worker, thought medical attention was needed. When the arrest was made in Jackson, Mrs. Hood vehemently protested her innocence and fainted while being taken to the city jail at Jackson. She fell and severely bruised her head and has suffered with severe headaches and fainting spells since. She became so ill that Mrs. Wilcox took her off the train at Richmond and called Dr. O. F. Hume, M.D., Hood taken to the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary in an ambulance. She was reported to be better Tuesday morning and they left a noon for Irvine.

When Mrs. Wilcox reached Saturday with requisition paper Mrs. Hood agreed to waive all formalities and did not fight the requisition but left immediate to meet the charge of which she protests she is innocent.

Mr. Hood is with Mrs. Hood in Richmond and Mrs. Wilcox state that she believes from the evidence that will be presented at the trial that Mrs. Hood will be acquitted.

Mrs. Wilcox was a social service worker and nurse before marriage about a year ago and was detailed as special agent to handle this case.

TEN COUNTIES IN BEREA $5,000 CONTEST

Berea, Ky., Aug. 1.—The Courier-Journal's prizes of $3,000 and $2,000 offered in the Berea College "County Achievement Contest," which opens Tuesday, will be contended for by ten mountain counties, it was announced by Marshall E. Vaughn, secretary of the institution.

The first counties indicating a desire to compete are Putnam, Jackson, Rockcastle, Laurel, Knox, Wayne, Owensley, Breathitt, Knott and Morgan.

"The whole of Eastern Kentucky beginning at Lewis county, and following a diagonal line through Madison to Cumberland county, is the territory eligible to this contest," Mr. Vaughn said in announcing a list of entries. "but for lack of adequate supervision it will be impossible to include all the counties in Eastern Kentucky this first year."

"A comprehensive program as we have outlined cannot be engineered over a large area than ten counties. Therefore, for the sake of the cause, we are forced to close our admissions and ask any other counties that are interested to wait results and get ready for the next campaign when this one closes."

"I firmly believe that this is the greatest rural life movement that has ever been started in Kentucky. I have been told by persons who are engaged in constructive work in other states that there is nothing in the United States that surpasses it in the way of constructive program."

Layson, to Philadelphia. Pa. The train was made up of thirteen cars containing 215 head of cattle weighing from 1,200 to 1,450 lbs. W. J. A. L. BAND CONCERTS VERY POPULAR

Appreciative People Urged To Contribute Toward Cost of New Uniforms

On account of the absence of the American Legion band from the city on Thursday, the regular weekly concert will be given on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The band concerts have been very popular and the Chamber of Commerce did a good thing when they made arrangements for them with the boys of the band. The arrangement was made that if the band would give concerts from the band stand during the summer, the Chamber of Commerce would ask the citizens of Richmond to contribute enough to buy uniforms and pay the expenses of the band incident to the giving of the weekly concerts. This expense amounts to about $300. The merchants and other business men of the city have contributed about $225 of this sum, leaving $75 of the expense still unprovided for.

On Friday evening an opportunity will be given those who have not already made a contribution, to do so and all those who enjoy the public concerts are asked to come prepared on Friday night to show their appreciation by bringing with them a liberal donation. Any sum from $5 down will be accepted and it hoped by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce that the collection may be such that the boys may feel that their efforts are appreciated. The program for Friday evening follows:

- 1—March—Lincoln Highway.
- 2—Cornet Solo—Cliftonian Police—James H. Leeds.
- 3—Grand Fantasia—Old Kentucky Home.
- 4—Vocal Solo—Sam Deatherage.
- 5—Serenade—Night in June.
- 6—Popular Selections.
- 7—March—Semper Fideis.

M'DERMOTT TO SPEAK TO NORMAL STUDENTS

Hon. E. J. McDermott, ex-Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, has written J. A. Sullivan that he will arrive here next Thursday to pay him a short visit. Mr. McDermott who, besides conducting a large law practice, is also a professor of law in the University of Louisville, will be invited to deliver a lecture to the pupils of the Normal School and Teachers' College on some legal or governmental subject while here.

After Hon. W. E. Dowling, of Lawrenceburg, married a few years ago, he accepted an important position in a large bank in New York City, but his many friends throughout the state are delighted to know that Judge Dowling has resigned his position in New York City and has returned to his old home at Lawrenceburg, Ky., and has resumed his practice of law. Besides serving two terms in the legislature, Judge Dowling also served one term in the Kentucky state Senate. He will probably accompany Mr. McDermott to also visit and see Mr. Sullivan.

Elliott Dexter A Modest Hero

Elliott Dexter, who is an outstanding figure among screen leading men, has a distinct aversion to talking about his past, or what he is going to do in the future. He gives this reason: "As for a person's past—that is over with. It is not what he has accomplished, so much as what he is accomplishing. I do not care to talk about my future, because I believe a great deal of energy is wasted in talking about what one intends to do. I would rather go ahead and do it."

Dexter plays a leading role in "Grand Larceny," a society drama with an absorbing plot. It is a Goldwyn picture, and will come to the local theatres Wednesday.

Col. Hanger Visits Rome

A business friend here of Col. H. B. Hanger, has heard from him in Rome, Italy, under date of July 22nd. He in part says: "Thanks for your letter. We are all well. Have spent four and one-half most delightful days here. Could stay here months and not see half the wonders. Makes one feel we are of little faith when we realize what others have done to establish the kingdom of God on earth. Met a Trappist priest here who had been to their monastery at Gethsemane, Ky. Am leaving for Naples thence to Florence and Venice." Col. Hanger did not complain of the weather in Rome nor say whether he had seen Pope Pius XI.

Ask Tourists To Help Themselves In Orchards

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 1.—Peach and apple trees all over Clark county, across the river, are breaking down from the weight of the heavy crop of fruit. According to farmers thousands of bushels of fruit must go to waste because there is no way of disposing of the surplus. In some localities in the county automobile tourists are invited to visit the orchards and help themselves in order to relieve the trees of part of their burdens.

A Few Parkers Left for Tomorrow But Only a Few!

They know, too, that Parker Pens are never sold except at standard prices established by the maker, and plainly printed on the Parker price-band, attached to each pen.

Hence it is little wonder that scores of people are taking advantage of the Vacation Clearance which the Parker Company authorized for the first time in its 30 years' history. Our sales since this sale opened last Saturday have exceeded all previous records, including Christmas.

MANY HAVE TB. AND DON'T KNOW IT

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 1.—Conditions found by Dr. S. W. Bates, superintendent of the State Tuberculosis Sanitarium, and Dr. J. S. Lock, director of the State Board of Health's Bureau of Tuberculosis, while they were holding three tuberculosis clinics recently at different points in the state indicate, according to Dr. A. T. McCormack, State Health Officer, that such clinics should be held all through Kentucky if the best possible progress is to be made in fighting the dread white plague.

At these clinics, according to Dr. Bates, 268 persons in all were examined for the disease. Fifty-eight active cases were found and 45 arrested inactive cases. Of the 58 persons who had active cases of the disease, 12 never had seen a doctor and did not suspect that they were victims of tuberculosis.

"These conditions are absolutely typical," Dr. McCormack said. "All over Kentucky there are persons who have tuberculosis without knowing it. These and other clinics that have been held show the need for more clinics and earlier consultation with competent physicians by persons who suspect that they may have the disease."

HUSTLERS STRIKE THEIR STRIDE AGAIN

At Johnson's Park Sunday the Blue Lick Hustlers shook off their losing streak and defeated the Richmond team via the shut out route. But the Richmond boys put up one of the stiffest games seen on the Hustlers' lot this season, and some seem to think the score should have been closer on account of some decisions by the umpires. But taking it all in all, the game was a corking good one. Manager Harris selected Calico to start the old game, but not being very effective he was replaced by Bowman in the third, who finished in good form, allowing one hit. Rogers, for the visitors, pitched a real good game. Oh, we forgot to say Manager Harris being short of a right fielder, played that position, the first inning accepting his only chance in old time form, but failed to get a home run on account of the three preceding batters striking at the air before his turn at bat. Summary as follows: Richmond000 000 000—0 Hustlers002 000 01*—3 Hits off Bowman, 1 in seven innings; Calico 3 in 2 innings; Rogers, 7; Struck out by Rogers 8; by Calico 1; by Bowman 7. Errors, C. Rogers 1 for Richmond; Hustlers, Welch, Robinson, B. Harris. Umpires Lewis and Ritter. Attendance 200.

Lose To Collegians

The Berea College summer school team defeated the Blue Lick Hustlers in a hitting fest. The Hustlers played the game with only four regular men. Kincaid did the twirling for the Hustlers, not a man reached first off his offerings until the fourth. The College team scored their first run in the sixth, when Kincaid began to weaken. Hocker for the College, pitched masterly ball all through the game. The score: College000 003 37*—13 Hustlers001 002 023—8 Hits off Kincaid 9; off Hocker 13. Struck out by Kincaid 1; by Hocker 4. Errors, Hustlers E. Legis 2, Farmer 2, B. Harris, Stotes 2, C. Lewis; Berea College, Williams, Combs, Hocker. Umpires Lewis and Maupin.
